

July 2021

Hello Parrish Highlanders,

I would like to start out this newsletter to thank all our dedicated members for all their hard work at our Northwoods rally held on June 26th. The day started out slow due to rain but it sure picked up around 3pm till 8pm. The food tent personnel worked their butts off all day. The poker run had over 200 riders check in at 5pm. Our bucket raffles & meat raffles went very well. This year we had no demo rides from any dealers due to no ATVs/UTVs in stock to demo!! Next year's rally for 2022 is in the works, so thanks to all the volunteers for their help to make this another successful event!

At our first meeting May 8, 2021 I had announced to club members attending that I would not be running for office in the October 9th election of officers. But I hope someone will step up and support this fine club. Without our club support town routes & county highway routes will be in jeopardy. I will work with anyone who accepts this position all I can for our great club.

Notice: On August 28th 2021, Langlade County ATV/UTV clubs will be hosting a benefit for Lil' Hummer, proprietor of Lil' Hummer's Hideaway & Campground, Location Langlade County Hwy A & Langlade County Hwy TT. This event is to help Larry & Karen Schisel for their loyal support of all Langlade County Clubs. Hummer was injured 2 years ago, he has undergone many surgeries, 2 years of rehab and now amputation of his foot. Let's see if we can help them in their time of need as they have helped us thru the years. Hummer is also VP of Wolf River Riders ATV/UTV club and VP of the Wisconsin Tavern league. At this fundraiser event we will have bucket raffles, meat raffles, music, 50/50 raffle, food & drink. There will be a 3-day poker run, buy as many poker sheets as you wish $10 each, which you pay for when you return to Hummers for the draw of hands. Payout will be 50% to winners, 50% to the fundraiser for Hummer. Look at our local establishments for details as posters are printed.

Parrish Highlanders is having our 7th Annual Meat Raffle on Sept 18th, at Elcho Clubhouse on County Hwy K, one block east of State Hwy 45, downtown Elcho, from 3pm to 6pm. I sure would like to see a lot more of our club members to attend and enjoy these events and help support the trails & routes in our area, so put these dates on your calendar. Meat raffle tickets are $20ea 1st prize $400 Gift certificate from Fishers Meats of Deerbrook, 2nd prize 7cu ft chest freezer, music but Bobby Vintage 3pm-6pm.
